

Heritage Park Horse Jumping Trials, September 2003

JCRAC has been involved with the horse jumping trials at Heritage Park for many years. The hams provide vital communications to ensure the safety of the participants, as well as other information to help coordinate the event.

Photos courtesy of Tim McCuiston, NOSZE

Photo 1: Steve Rainey WDØDPB was doing Net Control for this years Horse Jumping trials; he was reporting traffic to other stations on the course.

Photo 2: Bob Vanesse KCØGNR was reporting a horse clearing a particular gate.

Photo 3: Bob Vanesse KCØGNR was reporting a horse clearing number 18.

Photo 4: Don Warkentien WØDEW reporting a horse as its clearing Gate 10.

Photo 5: Don Hayes WA6VQS reporting a horse as its clears a gate.

Photo 6: Steve Brockway KA5YFC was reporting one of many horses to net control.